

Few words about our company...

LOGMAN Ltd is a private company with years of experience in the international forwarding and logistic by land, sea and air. Our personal reputation to our clients is a guarantee for professional and quality services for our future partners.

Our purpose is permanent improvement of our services and their expansion for supporting always optimum level of competitive power and competence.